In these changed times, for the moment, we can no longer offer a queuing system for the carvery, you will be taken to the carvery unit by a member of staff - we would ask you to wait to be taken to the unit where you will be served with your chosen selection.

The chef will plate your meats as usual & also plate your stuffing and Yorkshire, a server will then ask what vegetables you would like and plate them for you

If you would prefer not to go to the carvery unit we are happy to serve you a plated roast to your table

If you are not dining in our restaurant we will plate your roast in the kitchen to avoid queuing.

Please bear with us whilst we all adjust to the changes
